

THE BLESSING IN CELEBRATING THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES AND GOD'S KINGDOM

Many blessings accrue to the worshippers of God for celebrating the Feast of Tabernacles. The Bible says, "...the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice". (Deuteronomy 16:15)

Even in time of old, the major activity during the Feast was the reading of the law of God. God told Moses concerning the celebration, "Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law." (Deuteronomy 31:12) The word of God enlightens, enlivens, purifies, and strengthens His people. – John 15:3; 17:17

Moreover the prophetic injunction about the celebration of the feast makes its observance mandatory on all people living in this age and also contains promises of manifold blessings symbolized by rain. – Zechariah 14:16-19
